- between -

Unifor Local 1285

(hereinafter referred to as the Employer)

- and -

Canadian Office & Professional Employees Union Local 343

(hereinafter referred to as the Union)

Expiring October 14, 2026

AGREEMENT

- Between -

UNIFOR LOCAL 1285
(hereinafter referred to as the Employer)

- And -

CANADIAN OFFICE & PROFESSIONAL EMPLOYEES UNION, LOCAL 343
(hereinafter referred to as the Union)

ARTICLE 1 - RECOGNITION

- 1.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole collective bargaining agent for all temporary, part-time and full-time office employees.

A temporary or casual employee is one who is hired for specific project of a defined duration.

- 1.02 Temporary replacement (Full/Part-Time) employees: These employees are employees who are replacing permanent employees for such reasons as extended sick leave, personal leave, maternity leave, etc. Said employees shall be placed on a general seniority list after their probationary period and shall be entitled to the rights of a permanent employee in accordance with their seniority.

Permanent Part-Time employees: Permanent part-time employees hired on a day-to-day basis for such things as casual sickness, personal leave, vacation, etc. Replacements for periods not to exceed four (4) weeks. These employees shall not receive benefits and do not acquire seniority. If these employees become permanent, they shall be credited with seniority based on the days worked.

Temporary call-in employees; these employees are employees hired on a day-to-day basis for such things as casual sickness, personal leave, vacation, etc. Replacements for periods not to exceed four (4) weeks. These employees shall not receive benefits and do not acquire seniority. If these employees become permanent, they shall be credited with seniority based on the days worked.

Summer Help employees: Summer Help employees do not acquire seniority but are entitled to wage progression and holiday pay if it falls within the week worked only. If the employee becomes permanent, then seniority will date from the original date of hire with all benefits under the contract. However, any time taken off without pay during summer employment will not be reimbursable.

Any part-time employee who works their regularly scheduled part-time hours, up to thirty-two and one-half (32 ½) hours per week, shall have their hours used in the prorating of minor sick and personal allotment, severance pay.

ARTICLE 2 - UNION SECURITY

- 2.01 All employees to whom this Agreement applies shall be required to join the Union immediately when hired. When interviewing job applicants the Employer will inform them of this requirement.
- 2.02 All employees to whom this Agreement applies shall be members in good standing of the Union during the term of this Agreement as a condition of employment.
- 2.03 The Employer agrees to deduct, upon written authorization from this employee, Union initiation fees and dues from the wages of such employee. The Employer agrees to forward such initiation fees and dues to the office of the Union monthly.

ARTICLE 3 - SENIORITY

- 3.01 Seniority shall be accumulated on the basis of length of service with the Employer and shall be accorded to each employee effective from the first day of employment.
- 3.02 During the term of the ninety (90) day probationary period, such employee shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Agreement, except with respect to benefits which shall commence after thirty (30) days. Employment of employees may be terminated any time during this period of ninety (90) days for reasonable cause and shall not be arbitrable.
- 3.03 In promotions, layoffs and recall, seniority will be the only consideration subject of the employees ability to satisfactorily perform the work required.

In the event of a lay-off, employees shall be laid off in inverse order of seniority and recalled back to work by seniority.

- 3.04 The seniority status of an employee who is granted leave of absence shall be retained and shall continue to accumulate.
- 3.05 The seniority status of an employee who is laid off shall be retained for a period of sixty (60) months, or on a time for time basis, whichever is greater.
- 3.06 Seniority will be considered broken if the employee leaves voluntarily or is discharged for just cause.

ARTICLE 3A - PROMOTIONS, DEMOTIONS AND TRANSFERS

- 3A.01 Promotion is hereby defined as a move from a lower labour grade to a higher labour grade. It is the intention of the Employer to fill job vacancies from within the company before hiring new employees providing employees are available with the necessary qualifications to fill the vacant position.
- 3A.02 Notice of all job vacancies shall be posted on the Bulletin Board of the Employer. This notice will remain on the bulletin Board for three (3) working days and will include job title, labour grade and a brief description of the job duties including qualifications and necessary skills. Only those employees who make application during this three (3) day period will be considered for the job and will be permitted to file a grievance against the final selection.
- 3A.03 Promotions shall be made on the basis of seniority and qualifications. In the event two (2) or more employees have the same relative qualifications the employee with the greatest seniority shall be selected.
- 3A.04 In the event of a demotion as a result of bump back or other circumstances, an employee so demoted shall receive the maximum of the lower position or his/her present salary, whichever is lower.
- 3A.05 An employee may apply for and receive a transfer to a position of another classification within the same labour grade. Such transfers shall be made upon request of the employee at the discretion of the Employer. Any employee so transferred shall receive the same salary as in his/her former position.

ARTICLE 3B - JOB ELIMINATION

- 3B.01 When the UNIFOR Local 1285 is considering the elimination of a job, the Union shall be consulted six (6) months in advance. Employees so affected will be notified and entitled to displace employees in accordance with the procedure for displacement.

ARTICLE 4 - HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

- 4.01 The starting times for Support Staff shall be 8:00 a.m. for one employee and 9:00 a.m. for second employee with quitting times of 3:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. respectively or as mutually agreed.
